

The London Korean Film Festival 2018 presents a very special series of screenings and events showcasing exemplary pieces of independent documentary filmmaking from Korea. Based around themes of social justice and political resistance, this unique documentary programme will see acclaimed directors Kim Dong-won and Song Yun-hyeok present their films across two weekends, joined by noted critic Nam In Young for a selection of panel discussions and in-depth conversations.

PROGRAMME:

11 AUG SAT BIRKBECK CINEMA

11:30am: A Slice Room
+ Conversation with Song Yun-hyeok and Nam In Young

1:30pm: Lunch Break
Korean dishes provided

2:30pm: The Sanggyedong Olympics
+ The 6 Day Struggle at the Myeongdong Cathedral
+ Conversation with Kim Dong Won and Nam In Young

5pm-6pm: Drinks Reception
A selection of drinks, including Korean Soju, will be served

12 AUG SUN BIRKBECK CINEMA

1:30pm: Repatriation
+ Conversation with Kim Dong Won and Chris Bery

4:45pm: Roundtable (Keynes Library)
Participants: Nam In Young, Kim Dong-won and Song Yun-hyeok
Moderator: Chris Berry

6:15pm-7:15pm: Drinks - A selection of drinks, including Korean Soju, will be served

18 AUG SAT KCC THEATRE

3pm: Soseongri
+ Introduction

19 AUG SUN KCC THEATRE

3pm: Jung Il-woo, My Friend
+ Introduction

ATTENDING 'DOCUMENTARY FORTNIGHT' EVENTS

All events take place at:

- Birkbeck Cinema (43 Gordon Square, WC1H 0PD)
- Korean Cultural Centre UK (1-3 Strand, WC2N 5BW)

Admission is free, but booking is required for each screening. To reserve your place, please visit www.koreanfilm.co.uk

 @koreanfilmfest

 @theLKFF

 @london_korean_film_festival